EXAMINER'S ACTION

Serial No. 08/413,136 Art Unit 1205

The preliminary amendment filed March 29, 1995 has been received and entered into the file.

35 U.S.C. § 101 reads as follows:

"Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefore, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title".

Claims 29-31 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting. This non-statutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy, this policy reflected in 35 USC 101, so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the right to exclude, granted by patent. In re Starett, 327 F.sd 1005, 140 USPQ 474 (CCPA 1964); In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968); In re White, 405 F.2d 904, 160 USPQ 644 (CCPA 11969); In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); In re Van Ornam, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (CAFC 1985); In re Goodman, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (CAFC 1993).

The subject matter recited in claims 29-31 of the instant Application is fully disclosed in United States Patent No. 5,142,056. Allowance of pending claims 29-31 would extend the rights to exclude, already granted in United States Patent No. 5,142,056. If allowed, the instant claims 29-31, not only would provide patent protection to the subject matter of pending claims 29-31, but also extend patent coverage to the subject matter already disclosed in patent 5,142,056. Thus, the controlling fact is that patent protection for the composition, fully disclosed in and covered by the claims of patent 5,142,056, would be extended by the allowance of claims 29-31, pending in the instant application.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why Applicants were prevented from presenting the instant pending claims for examination during the prosecution of the issued patent.

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321 (b) would overcome an actual or provisional rejection on a non-statutory double patenting ground, providing the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.78 (d).

No claims are allowed.
